

The logo features a small Tennessee state flag icon at the top. Below it, the word "TENNESSEE" is written in blue, uppercase letters. Underneath that, the words "REVERSE" and "TRANSFER" are stacked in large, bold, red, uppercase letters. The word "REVERSE" has a red arrow pointing to the right at its end, and the word "TRANSFER" has a red arrow pointing to the left at its beginning.

LEIGH CHERRY

Leigh Cherry is the Coordinator for Statewide Student Success Initiatives for the University of Tennessee System Office of Academic Affairs and Student Success. In this role, Cherry is the statewide project coordinator for the Tennessee Reverse Transfer program and is heavily involved in other transfer initiatives throughout the state. Preceding her role with the UT System, Cherry was a Student Success Coordinator at a Liberal Arts College in New England, and a Spanish content developer, instructional designer, and adjunct professor. She holds a B.A. in Spanish Teaching and TESOL, and a M.A. in Spanish Pedagogy from Brigham Young University. She is currently working toward a Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.